ATTORNEY BIOGRAPHIES

Spector, Roseman & Kodroff is a highly successful law firm with a nationwide practice that focuses on class actions and complex litigation, including securities, antitrust, consumer protection, contract and commercial claims. The firm is active in major litigation in state and federal courts throughout the country. The firm's reputation for excellence has been recognized on numerous occasions by courts which have appointed the firm as lead counsel in major class actions. As a result of the firm's efforts, defrauded consumers and shareholders have recovered millions of dollars in damages. The firm is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell, its highest rating for competence and integrity.

Judges throughout the country have recognized contributions of the law firm in class action cases. See In re New York City Shoes Inc. Securities Litigation, C.A. No. 87-4677 (E.D. Pa.) ("co-lead counsel Eugene Spector is a skilled and respected member of the bar who deftly managed this class action litigation."); Larkin v. Collins, C.A. No. 93-1252 (D. Kan.) ("I'm very appreciative of this kind of good work by lawyers."); In re Oak Industries Securities Litigation, Master File No. 83-0537-G(M) (S.D. Cal.) (court approved a settlement in excess of $32 million, finding that counsel for plaintiffs were "highly experienced and capable attorneys of good reputation . . . [who] have performed both with proficiency and efficiency. . . ."); Swanick v. Felton, C.A. No. 91-1350 (E.D. Pa.) ("But for the extraordinary work and skill of the plaintiffs' attorneys, there would have been no benefit to the class at all. . . . You have advanced the goal of litigation with dispatch and with dignity. . . .").

EUGENE A. SPECTOR, senior partner, has extensive experience in complex litigation, and has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in securities and antitrust cases. Mr. Spector was formerly a litigator with the firm of Schnader, Harrison, Segal and Lewis; and with Gross & Sklar, P.C., where he established and headed the securities litigation section of the firm.

Mr. Spector has served as lead or co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in numerous cases with successful results, such as:

ABOUT THE FIRM

FINE, KAPLAN AND BLACK, RPC
1835 MARKET STREET, 28th FLOOR
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA 19103
(215) 567-6565

Fine, Kaplan and Black is a nationally recognized firm located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which devotes its practice entirely to litigation, with particular emphasis on antitrust, securities, RICO, consumer protection and complex commercial litigation.

Fine, Kaplan and Black, R.P.C., is highly ranked in Pennsylvania in the antitrust practice area by the 2005 Chambers USA Guide. According to the Guide, peers “described the boutique as being heavy with ‘intellectually gifted lawyers’ who have extensive trial experience in civil and criminal antitrust cases.”

In addition, all of Fine, Kaplan and Black’s litigation partners – Allen Black, Roberta Liebenberg, Donald Perelman and Jeffrey Istvan – have been named as 2005 Pennsylvania Super Lawyers in a recent survey by Philadelphia Magazine. Ms. Liebenberg and Mr. Black were named among the top 100 lawyers in Pennsylvania; and Ms. Liebenberg was named among the top 50 women lawyers in the State.

Over the years since its formation in 1975, the firm has had leading roles in numerous important complex actions, including class actions, in federal and state courts. A few examples of these cases include:

In Re Nasdaq Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, 187 F.R.D. 465 (S.D.N.Y. 1998), was a large, complex multidistrict price-fixing class action in which a member of the firm was Plaintiffs’ Co-Lead Counsel, a class of more than a million class members was certified by the Court, and which ultimately was settled for a recovery of more than one billion dollars for the benefit of the class.

In re Remeron End-Payor Antitrust Litigation, 2005-2 (CCH) Trade Cas. ¶ 74,966, No. 02-cv-2007 (D.N.J. Sept. 13, 2005), an antitrust class action in which the firm was co-lead counsel, and achieved a settlement of $36 million for the class of end users of a prescription drug.

In re Linerboard Antitrust Litigation, 321 F. Supp. 2d 619 (E.D. Pa. 2004), and 2004 WL 1221350, at *6 (E.D. Pa. June 2, 2004), was a horizontal price-fixing class action against the major manufacturers of corrugated containers, in which the firm was a member of Plaintiffs' Executive Committee. Settlements in the fall of 2003 resulted in a recovery in excess of $202.5 million for the benefit of the class. The firm was a member of the executive committee of plaintiffs' counsel.

Harleysville Mutual Ins. Co. v. GE Reinsurance Corp., 2002 WL 922148 (E.D. Pa. May 6, 2002), a complex litigation in which we won summary judgment for our plaintiff client less than six months after the action was filed.

In re Lorazepam and Clorazepate Antitrust Litigation, 2003 WL 2203774, *3 (D.D.C. 2003), an antitrust class action in which we were co-counsel for the class of direct purchasers. The Court, in approving a $35,000,000 settlement for our class, characterized counsel "among the best and most experienced antitrust litigators in the country."

In re Microcrystalline Cellulose Antitrust Litigation, M.D.L. No. 1402 (E.D. Pa.), a pending price-fixing class action involving the sale of microcrystalline cellulose (MCC), in which the firm is one of the co-chairs of discovery.

In re Vitamins Antitrust Litigation, M.D.L. No. 1285 (D.D.C.), a massive international price-fixing class action, in which the firm is a member of Plaintiffs' Executive Committee. Settlements have been reached resulting in a recovery for the class in excess of $325 million.

Parsky v. First Union Corp., 51 Pa. D & C 4th 468, 2001 WL 535786 (Phila. Com. Pl. 2001), a class action alleging breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty against First Union Corp., arising out of First Union's conversion of its common trust funds to shares of its in-house mutual funds. In the fall of 2003 the firm achieved a settlement in excess of $23 million for the benefit of the class.

In Re Providian Financial Corp. Credit Card Terms Litigation (E.D. Pa. 1999), a large, consumer fraud class action in which a member of the firm was Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel, which ultimately was settled for $105 million dollars for the benefit of the class.

In Re Allegheny Health, Education & Research Foundation. The firm represented a former executive of the Allegheny Health System as a defendant in a variety of civil proceedings in federal and state trial courts, and in a federal bankruptcy court. The firm also represented the client in connection with a variety of government investigations concerning the financial collapse of the Allegheny system. See Browne v. Abdelhak, 2000 WL 1201889 (E.D. Pa. 2000)

In re Polypropylene Carpet Antitrust Litigation, 93 F. Supp. 2d 1348 (N.D. Ga. 2000), a horizontal price-fixing class action involving the carpet industry, in which the firm was co-counsel for the class, resulting in a recovery of nearly $50 million.

In Re Commercial Explosives Antitrust Litigation, MDL 1093 (D. Utah), a large, complex multidistrict price-fixing class action in which a member of the firm was Discovery Co-Chair. The case was settled for a recovery of more than $ 77 million dollars for the benefit of the class.

In Re Drill Bits Antitrust Litigation (C.A. No. H-91-627) (S.D. Tex.), a complex price-fixing class action in which a partner of the firm was on the Plaintiffs' Trial Team. The case ultimately was settled for a recovery of $ 53.4 million dollars for the benefit of the class.

In re Corrugated Container Antitrust Litigation, 1983-2 CCH Trade Cases ¶ 65,628 (S.D. Tex. 1983), a seminal price-fixing class action case in which a firm partner was one of six trial counsel for the plaintiff class and obtained $500 million in settlements, including a four month jury trial that resulted in a verdict for the class.

Mead Data Central v. West Publishing Co. (S.D. Ohio 1987); and West Publishing Co. v. Mead Corporation, (D. Minn. 1988). The firm, with co-counsel, represented West Publishing Company in two courts as both counterclaim defendant and plaintiff in a massive antitrust battle with Lexis, and ultimately achieved a very favorable settlement for West.

Northeast Jet Co. v. Lehigh-Northampton Airport Authority, et al., 767 F. Supp. 672 (E.D. Pa. 1991). A firm partner represented Defendants in RICO, antitrust, § 1983, and other claims against an airport authority, the chairman of its board, and the airport's executive director. All claims were dismissed on summary judgment before trial.

Swarthmore Radiation Oncology, Inc. v. Melvyn J. Lapes, M.D., et al., 1993-2 CCH Trade Cases ¶ 70,443 (E.D. Pa. 1992), a group boycott case in which the firm represented the Plaintiff and achieved an exceptionally satisfactory settlement, the amount of which is subject to a confidentiality agreement.

In Re Domestic Air Transportation Antitrust Litigation, 137 F.R.D. 677 (N.D. Ga. 1991), a large complex antitrust price-fixing class action, in which the Court appointed one of the firm's partners as Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel and in which a settlement valued by the Court at $ 458 million was obtained.

Hoefler & Arnett, Inc. v. The Lehigh Press, Inc., 695 F. Supp. 832 (E.D. Pa. 1988), a securities class action that was settled for $4 million after trial had begun, in which the firm was lead counsel for the plaintiff class. The Court found that "The result is excellent in relation to the contingencies and risks of this lawsuit." Id. at 835.

Stainton v. Tarantino, 637 F. Supp. 1051 (E.D. Pa. 1986). The firm represented a partner of a prominent Philadelphia law firm in RICO litigation, and obtained a defense verdict after a month-long jury trial.

Virginia Soft Drinks Antitrust Litigation (E.D. Va. 1990). A price-fixing action in which the firm, as one of the principal counsel, obtained class certification and a settlement for 100% of damages after prior similar actions (brought by others) had failed.

Sutton v. Independence Medical Service Association of Pennsylvania, et al., (E.D. Pa. 1992) ("Blue Cross/Blue Shield") an ERISA and fraud class action in which the firm as Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel obtained a class action settlement including full damages and equitable relief greatly improving the extent to which Blue Cross/Blue Shield pay major medical benefits.

Transamerican Refining Corporation v. Dravo Corporation, et al., 130 F.R.D. 70 (S.D. Tex. 1990) (Specialty Steel Piping Antitrust Litigation); an antitrust action in which the firm and its co-counsel obtained a $50 million settlement for the plaintiff class.

Various courts have commented favorably on the quality of our firm's work in antitrust and other class actions. For example, in In re Linerboard Antitrust Litigation, 321 F. Supp. 2d 619 (E.D. Pa. 2004), and 2004 WL 1221350, at *6 (E.D. Pa. June 2, 2004), in which Donald Perelman and Roberta Liebenberg were members of Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, the Court approved a settlement of $202.5 million for the benefit of the class, and stated, "[T]he lawyering in the case at every stage was superb...." In In re Lorazepam and Clorazepate Antitrust Litigation, 2003 WL 22037741, *6, M.D.L. No. 1290 (D.D.C. 2003), in which our firm was co-counsel for the class of direct purchasers, the Court in approving settlement characterized counsel "among the best and most experienced antitrust litigators in the country." In the In re Nasdaq Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, 1998 WL 782020, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. 1998), in which a member of our firm was Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel, the Court in approving settlement stated that, "It is difficult to conceive of better representation than the parties to this action achieved...." In the In re Workers Compensation Insurance Antitrust Litigation, CV. No. 4-85-1166 (D. Minn.) in which our firm was one of the principal counsel, the Court in approving settlement characterized counsel as "extraordinarily competent" (Transcript of April 29, 1991 at 103). In Meredith v. Mid-Atlantic Coca-Cola Bottling Co. ("Virginia Soft Drinks Antitrust Litigation"), Civ. No. 89-00302-R (E.D. Va.), in which our firm was one of principal counsel for plaintiffs, the Court in approving settlement characterized plaintiffs' counsel as "excellent" (Transcript of May 1, 1990 at 25). Likewise, in Sutton v. Medical Service Association of Pennsylvania, et al. ("Pennsylvania Blue Shield/Blue Cross Class Action"), Civil Action No. 92-4787 (E.D. Pa.) in which our firm was Lead Counsel for plaintiffs, the Court stated that the "quality" of our work was "extraordinarily good." (Memorandum dated June 8, 1994 at 18).

Allen D. Black, a member, is a graduate of Princeton University and the University of Pennsylvania Law School, magna cum laude, where he was Comment Editor of the Law Review and a member of the Order of the Coif. Thereafter, he served as law clerk to the Honorable John Minor Wisdom of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, as a trial attorney in the Civil Rights Division of the United States Department of Justice, and in the Judge Advocate General's Corps of the United States Navy. Mr. Black was selected by his peers as one of the top 100 "Super-lawyers" in Pennsylvania in 2005. He is highly rated in both general commercial litigation and antitrust law by the 2004 Chambers Guide, which said: "Allen Black of Fine, Kaplan and Black acts for both plaintiffs and defendants in a variety of complex commercial litigation cases. A 'smart, aggressive, talented and ethical lawyer,' he impresses interviewees as one who 'makes opposing attorneys know they have a fight on their hands.'" Id. at 1135.

Professor Stephen Burbank of the University of Pennsylvania Law School recently stated: "Allen Black is quite simply one of the best and most thoughtful lawyers in the country, a highly successful litigator and important contributor to numerous law reform efforts." Burbank, Litigation in a Free Society: The Roles of Litigation, 80 Wash. U.L.Q., 705, 719 (2002).

Mr. Black has been an elected member of The American Law Institute for 29 years, has served as a member of its council for 13 years, and was recently elected as the second vice president of the Institute. # Exhibit G

Charfoos & Christensen, P.C., has been a law firm in downtown Detroit since 1929. We have grown substantially since our beginnings and currently have a staff of 12 attorneys and other highly skilled paraprofessionals who provide necessary technical support. Our clients come not only from Michigan but also throughout the country.

Our work with DES and Toxic Shock Syndrome in the 70's and 80's brought us national exposure. In addition to representing clients in the Lockerbie Pan Am crash, the Korean Airlines 007 shootdown and Northwest Airlines Flight 255 litigation, we serve as liaison counsel between numerous attorneys and the court. We have represented hundreds of injured clients in the bankruptcy action against A. H. Robins, manufacturer of the Dalkon Shield intra-uterine device and hundreds of injured clients in actions against Dow Corning and other manufacturers of breast implants. We have a lead role in this most recent mass tort litigation and are one of a select group of firms on the National Steering Committee for this multi-district litigation. In addition, we have served as class counsel in several national class action suits including national litigation against Abbott Laboratories, Bausch & Lomb, Inc., Sulzer Medica USA, Inc., Sulzer Orthopedics and General Motors.

To enhance our services, Charfoos & Christensen, P.C., has established relationships with lawfirms throughout the country. Through these associations we now provide legal services in the following areas: accounting malpractice, all terrain vehicle injuries, antitrust litigation, architectural malpractice, automobile negligence, aviation litigation, commercial litigation, computer law, construction liability, drug products liability, employment discrimination, entertainment and sports law, environmental law, farming equipment injuries, federal and state agency matters, federal and state appeals, highway design failures, industrial liability, industrial products liability, labor law, legal malpractice, mass injury litigation, medical malpractice, pension and profit sharing plans, personal and business IRS matters, personal injury, products liability, professional and business licensing matters, professional disciplinary matters, real estate law and condemnation, tax law, vehicle rollover injuries, wrongful discharge and pharmaceutical litigation.

Not only is our firm recognized for its outstanding litigation record, but also two of our attorneys, Lawrence S. Charfoos and David W. Christensen, are listed in Best Lawyers in America. One of our former partners, Dennis W. Archer, has served as a Justice on the Michigan Supreme Court and as the Mayor of Detroit.

Several of our partners have written books, including: The law of Medical Practice in Michigan; Obstetrics/Gynecology and the Law; Anesthesiology and the Law; The Law of Medical Practice in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Illinois; The Medical Malpractice Case: The Legal and Ethical Aspects of Treating Terminally Ill Patients; and Daughters at Risk (The DES Story).

In addition, some of our attorneys are part-time law and medical professors and others are frequent lecturers for both professional and community groups.

Charfoos & Christensen, P.C. takes pride in its accomplishments on behalf of its clients as well as the legal profession and continues to explore new ways for our country's legal system to better serve the unique needs of our clients and their families.
